

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Indianapolis.—Woman called up private detective agency by telephone and warned them that there was a plot to blow-up the federal courthouse in which the 40 union workers are being tried. Woman is unknown. Guard around bldg. has been increased.

Bochum, Prussia.—35 men reported killed and many more injured in mine explosion near here.

New York.—Enclosure of advertising circulars of any character in newspapers offered for sale is a crime according to Justice W. W. Foster in the General Sessions Court.

London.—Miss Kitty Marion, suffragette, charged with turning in false fire alarms, said she preferred imprisonment to paying a fine. One month in jail.

Decatur, Ill.—R. E. Houston, contractor, walked in his sleep. Fell from 5th floor of Arcade Hotel. Killed.

Champaign, Ill.—35 laborers in U. of I. agricultural dep't today threatened strike. More pay.

Los Angeles.—Finding of rudder and wing tip of hydroplane "Snookums," in which H. Kearny and W. Lawrence left here Saturday, and strips of Lawrence's shirt and vest make it almost certain that both men perished.

Lake Charles, La.—S. Artago shot and killed by Wm. Ardoin, 14, because of an alleged insult to the boy's 17-year-old sister.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—C. S. Hazelline, 68, dead. Bright's disease.

Harrisburg, Pa.—State Factory Inspector J. G. Delaney charged today with having failed to enforce child labor law.

Washington.—J. P. Morgan arrived at money trust room, prepared to take stand late today. Counsel accompanied him.

Milwaukee.—Vito Parlapiano, 40, laborer, answered to demand of black hand for $5,000 by fatally shooting M. Piorice, alleged agent. Latter may die.

Little Rock, Ark.—Gov. G. W. Donaghy made sharp denial that his pardoning 360 convicts was a "blow at administration of justice" as charged by his critics.

Indianapolis.—Arguing in favor of long prison terms for 40 union iron workers charged with conspiracy and unlawful shipments of explosives, Special Assistant District Attorney J. Noel opened for the government today.

Rochester, N. Y.—Boiler exploded in engine house of N. Y. C. lines at Summerville today. Fire. $150,000 loss.

Omaha.—Chas. Roberts finished 4-year term in prison for robbing butcher shop. Robbed it again. In again.

New York.—Joseph Dobin, Jr., 16, wrote that he was correcting blunder he had brought into world, then killed himself.

New York.—Referring to minister who called Brooklyn "The Vestibule of Hell," Mayor Gaynor intimated that the clergyman was a scamp.

New York.—Lillian Margulius,